Welcome page

Welcome Dragons!

Housing and Residence Life is excited to welcome our new and returning Dragons to our residence halls and Greek houses! Living on campus is a big part of the college experience - an environment where students live, learn and engage, having experiences that will serve them for the rest of their lives.

On the following pages, you will be able to tell us about yourself and your housing needs and sign your housing agreement. You'll return to the portal to search for a roommate and as your final step, pick your space for the upcoming year. You have a lot to choose from, and we are here to help you along the way!

We are glad you will be joining us on campus! Click Start to begin your application.

Living Style Questionnaire

All students are asked to complete the living style questionnaire, regardless of preferred roommate.

Once this is complete, select "Save & Continue" to move to the next step.

Living Style Questions

Please complete the following Living Style Questionnaire. This will enable you to search for potential roommates and allow other students to search for you. This step is required even if you have an intended roommate(s) in mind. The roommate matching step will be available after you complete the housing application.

Some things to keep in mind as you complete this step:

- You may return to this step at any time to update your responses.
- Your responses below are preferences only, students should engage with one another to discuss preferences.
- During roommate matching, answers to these questions will show your percentage of compatibility with other students, most students report a match as successful between 50%-70%.
- During roommate matching, students may search on a specific question below to see how prospective roommate(s) responded.
- During roommate matching, students must have a completed housing application to appear in the roommate search results.

Share a few things about yourself a prospective roommate might like to know. Here are some prompts to assist with this:

- Music interests - Who is on your Spotify Wrapped?
- Hobbies/Leisure time - What does a weekend look for you? Do you participate in sports? Play an instrument? Have an interest in Greek Life?
- Spirituality/religious practices/observance - Is this a important part of your daily routine? If so, in what way?
- Food or other allergies - What's something you could eat every day or something you never want to see at your dinner table?
- Academic Areas of Interest - What do you plan to study?
- Room Preferences - What kind of room do you hope to live in (suite, traditional etc)?
- Temperature - Are you always cold? Always hot?
- Share anything else that a prospective roommate should know about you or your living preferences.

Please note that all students are expected to follow the housing guidelines outlined in the student code of conduct.

Spiritual/Religious Observance: Needs for Housing

Housing Spiritual/Religious Observance Needs

The following question is an opportunity for students to share their spiritual/religious observance needs related to their on-campus living experience. The University has a number of housing options available to support your spiritual/religious observance needs. Students may complete a housing accommodation request form to describe how a housing accommodation will help resolve the conflict between their religious observance/beliefs and the University's standard requirements.

The request form must be completed by Monday, May 19, 2025. Students who complete a request form after May 19th will be considered as space allows.

We encourage all students at Drexel University to take advantage of the spectrum of resources available both on and off campus to support their spiritual development and identity. Click here to learn more and get connected with other incoming or current students.

Please review the following information before making a selection:

- If you are not seeking a Spiritual/Religious Accommodation, select I am not seeking a Housing Accommodation from the drop-down menu.
- If, due to your religious observance, you seek to live in a Ablution (wudhu) friendly environment, select I would like to request Ablution-friendly Housing from the drop-down menu.
- If, due to your religious observance, you seek to live in a Kosher Kitchen/Shabbat-friendly environment, select I would like to request Kosher/Shabbat-friendly Housing from the drop-down menu.
- If your religious observance/beliefs will not be addressed through Kosher/Shabbat friendly or Ablution (wudhu) friendly housing, please select I would like to request Spiritual/Religious Accommodation from the drop-down menu. You will be directed to provide information for how you can be supported in Drexel Housing.

Please Make A Selection:

1. I am not seeking a Housing Accommodation
2. I would like to request Ablution-friendly Housing
3. I would like to request Kosher/Shabbat-friendly Housing
4. I would like to request Spiritual/Religious Accommodation

Housing Agreement

Housing Agreement

Please review and sign the Housing Agreement for the 2025-2026 University Housing (Quarter).

2025-2026 Housing Agreement

This Housing Agreement ("Agreement") is between the undersigned student (the "Resident") and Drexel University (the "University"), acting through its Office of Housing and Residence Life. It sets forth the terms and conditions by which the Resident will live in accommodations owned or leased by the University ("University Housing"). As used in this agreement, the term "University Housing" includes University Residence Halls and Fraternity and Sorority Housing. The University agrees to provide the Resident with facilities, services, and a living/learning environment at a specific cost on the terms and conditions of this Agreement. The Resident agrees to use University facilities and services in a manner appropriate to the University's purpose as a private non-profit institution of higher education. This Agreement will be effective on the date the Resident electronically completes and submits the housing application (the "Application"), to the University via their Housing and Dining account accessible via DrexelOne portal. A housing assignment will not be offered without the required Deposit (if applicable, as defined below). The information set forth in the Application shall be deemed incorporated into this Agreement.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. Residency and Dining Requirement: It is the mission of the University to provide a safe, clean, and comfortable living environment that is an essential part of a student's social and educational experience and contributes to the student's growth as a member of the University community and beyond. To facilitate that experience, full-time, undergraduate students must live in University Housing or University-Affiliated Housing for their first and second years unless a commuter exemption has been approved. First-Year students must live in a University Residence Hall; Second-Year (Sophomore) students must live in a University Residence Hall, University-Affiliated Housing or Fraternity and Sorority Housing with invitation from the organization. Drexel Campus Dining Plans are required for First-Year residential students.

2. Eligibility: Only full-time, registered students, including students on Co-op assignments, are eligible to live in University Housing. Residents must be registered for classes by the beginning of week two of each academic term. Failure of Resident to be registered before the start of week two of each academic term will result in the immediate termination of this Agreement. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Agreement, for the Summer Quarter only, provided that Resident is registered for a minimum of three (3) credits, Resident shall be permitted to live in Fraternity and Sorority Housing. Exceptions for all other residents will be evaluated and determined.
